

National Study of Youth and Religion

On-site Workshop Offerings

“Rarely has a generation of young people been so interested in spirituality and religion and so open to experiences of the holy and the transcendent. This is a kairos moment—the right moment—for the Catholic Church and her pastoral ministry to, with, and for young people.”
Concluding paragraph of National Study of Youth and Religion: Analysis of the Population of Catholic Teenagers and Their Parents

Take advantage of this kairos moment to engage your local community in understanding and discussing this critical research study for ministry to Catholic youth and children by having one of the authors or researchers who developed the National Catholic Report come to your diocese, parish, or organization. The workshops focus on presenting the key findings and conclusions, as well as engaging participants in identifying implications and strategies for responding to the findings of this study.

Potential audiences include regional meetings of diocesan leaders, youth ministry leaders, catechetical leaders, school faculty, parish staff, pastors and parents.

Presentation Options:

Half-Day or Evening	$500 plus travel expenses
Full-Day	$1000 plus travel expenses
Multiple Presentations over 2-3 days	$2000 plus travel expenses

This option could include presentations in different sites or neighboring dioceses or parishes.

Please note that fees can be negotiated to address special financial situations.

Contact one of the experienced presenters below to discuss dates and details:

Charlotte McCorquodale, Ph.D. (Baton Rouge, LA)
417-693-1882 charlotte@ministrytrainingsource.org

Vikki Shepp, M.A. (Los Angeles, CA)
562-243-5690 vikki@ministrytrainingsource.org

Leigh Sterten, M.T.S., M.S.A.S. (Springfield, MO)
417-861-2256 leigh@ministrytrainingsource.org